

Vowel pairs 1

Vowels often work in pairs. Which vowel pairs do you see in the box?

raise outboard count ounce pain proud bounce
noun jail journey faint dairy court daily brain
country county afraid

Say each word to yourself and circle the vowel pairs.

Which word in the box do you get if you add -y to count? _____ Add -ry? _____

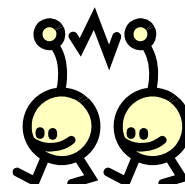

Classify the words in the box. Write each one next to the set that has the same vowel pair as the words in the box.

ai

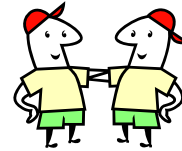

ou

_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

oo

Vowel pairs 2

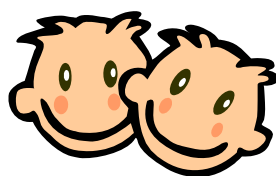

raise outboard count ounce pain proud bounce
noun jail journey faint dairy court daily brain
country county afraid

Write the word from the box that fits each definition below.

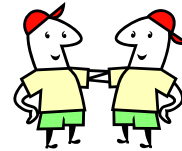

The word from the box might need an added ending to match the definition.

Example: You might add a suffix or make the words from the box plural.

- _____ apposite of painless
- _____ opposite of fearless
- _____ one who bounces
- _____ a thinking center
- _____ a compound word
- _____ where you see the judge
- _____ a good feeling
- _____ locked behind bars

Vowel pairs 3

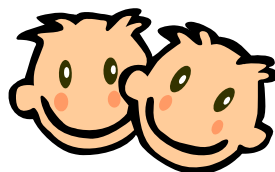

raise outboard count ounce pain proud bounce
noun jail journey faint dairy court daily brain
country county afraid

Write the word from the box that fits each definition below.

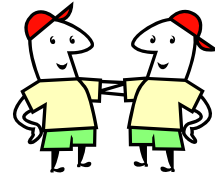

The word from the box might need an added ending to match the definition.

Example: You might add a suffix or make the words from the box plural.

_____	happens 7 days a week
_____	France, Germany, Italy
_____	Peter, dog, Europe, love
_____	as 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, etc.
_____	sixteen make a pound
_____	milk and cheese
_____	not loud, weak; collapse
_____	long trip
_____	courthouse and fairs

Vowel pairs 2+3

Solution

Write the word from the box that fits each definition below.

painful	opposite of painless
afraid	opposite of fearless
bouncer	one who bounces
brain	a thinking center
outboard	a compound word
court	where you see the judge
proud	a good feeling
jail	locked behind bars
daily	happens 7 days a week
countries	France, Germany, Italy
nouns	Peter, dog, Europe, love count	as 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, etc.
ounces	sixteen make a pound
dairy	milk and cheese
faint	not loud, weak; collapse
journey	long trip
county	courthouse and fairs